Whereas, this Court rescheduled the Case Management Conference ("CMC") previously scheduled for March 19, 2014 based on the declaration submitted by William C. McNeill, III,

1 which stated, in essence, that he had just recently become counsel in the above styled matter,
 2 and that the Defendants had then just recently been served, and therefore, the then scheduled
 3 CMC should be rescheduled in order that an appropriate CMC Statement could be filed in the 4 matter because all counsel would have had ample opportunity to confer regarding the litigation
 5 of the above styled matter. On March 17, 2014, this Court rescheduled the CMC in this matter
 6 for May 7, 2014.

7 On March 28, 2014, pursuant to a request from the City Attorney's Office, the counsel for the 8 parties entered into a stipulation that allowed the Defendants until April 25, 2014 in order to 9 file any responsive pleading, and, on March 31, 2014, this Court signed an Order allowing the 10 Defendants until April 25, 2014 to file any responsive pleading. On April 25, 2014, Defendants 11 filed their answer.

12 Because of the short period of time from the filing of the answer in this matter and the 13 scheduled CMC, as well as other time consuming duties, counsel for the parties have not had an 14 adequate time period to confer as to the preparation of an appropriate CMC Statement. Nor did 15 they have 14 days in which to file this stipulation as normally required by Local Rule 6-1(b).

16 Any reasonable change of the date for the CMC would not have any material effect on the 17 case schedule in that it is the first scheduling element for the management of this action.

18 Therefore, pursuant to Local Rule 6-1(b), the parties request that this Court continue the 19 presently scheduled CMC for one more week-until May 14, 2014 at 2:00 PM.
